

NAME

DATE

CLASS

Where and when does the article take place?

Who is the expert the article identifies?

What makes the person an expert?

The writer identifies a change that has occurred in the region, what is that change?

According to this article, what does the public and scientific community believe about wildlife?

Is this opinion believed by all?

How about specifically in the region this article is referring to?

What does the expert see as being a challenge in the future?

Who does the expert see as being a challenge?